

2007

Senators Percussion Ensemble Announce 2007 Production

Senators Percussion Ensemble 2007

W I R E D

The Senators Percussion Ensemble are part of the Senators Drum & Bugle Corps. The Ensemble was formed in November 2004 and has developed from a performance group set up to run clinics into a competitive Indoor Percussion unit.

In 2007 the reigning CGN IPC Champion will perform a show entitled "WIRED". The show is a fast moving exploration of rhythmic moods and feels, Wired is how you feel, it's a buzz, it's within, it's electric, its positive, its negative, its Senators Percussion Ensemble.

The show has been designed by Tim Fairbanks and Mark Reynolds with arrangements by Andrew Markworth, featuring original music. The ensemble will embark on a very busy schedule throughout March which will see us travel to the following:

- 11th March 2007 Burgess Hill "WGUK Show"
- 24th March 2007 Crawley "Percussion Live Show with Rhythm X"
- 31st March 2007 Eindhoven "CGN Championships"
- 1st April 2007 Ghent "Masters of Percussion show with Rhythm X"

The 25 member group are instructed and led by a high calibre staff team that features; John McNamara, Craig Sherratt, Neil Hyde, Mark Bassett, Kevin Dearlove, Ben Collins, Steve Wright, Remco Groenewegen, Christian Bradbury, Michelle Vaughan, Stuart Vaughan, Tim Fairbanks, Andrew Markworth, Joe Fitzpatrick.

We are excited about this year's production and we hope you enjoy our show.

For more information on the Senators please visit – www.senators.org.uk